

Nadi Half Day Heritage Tour

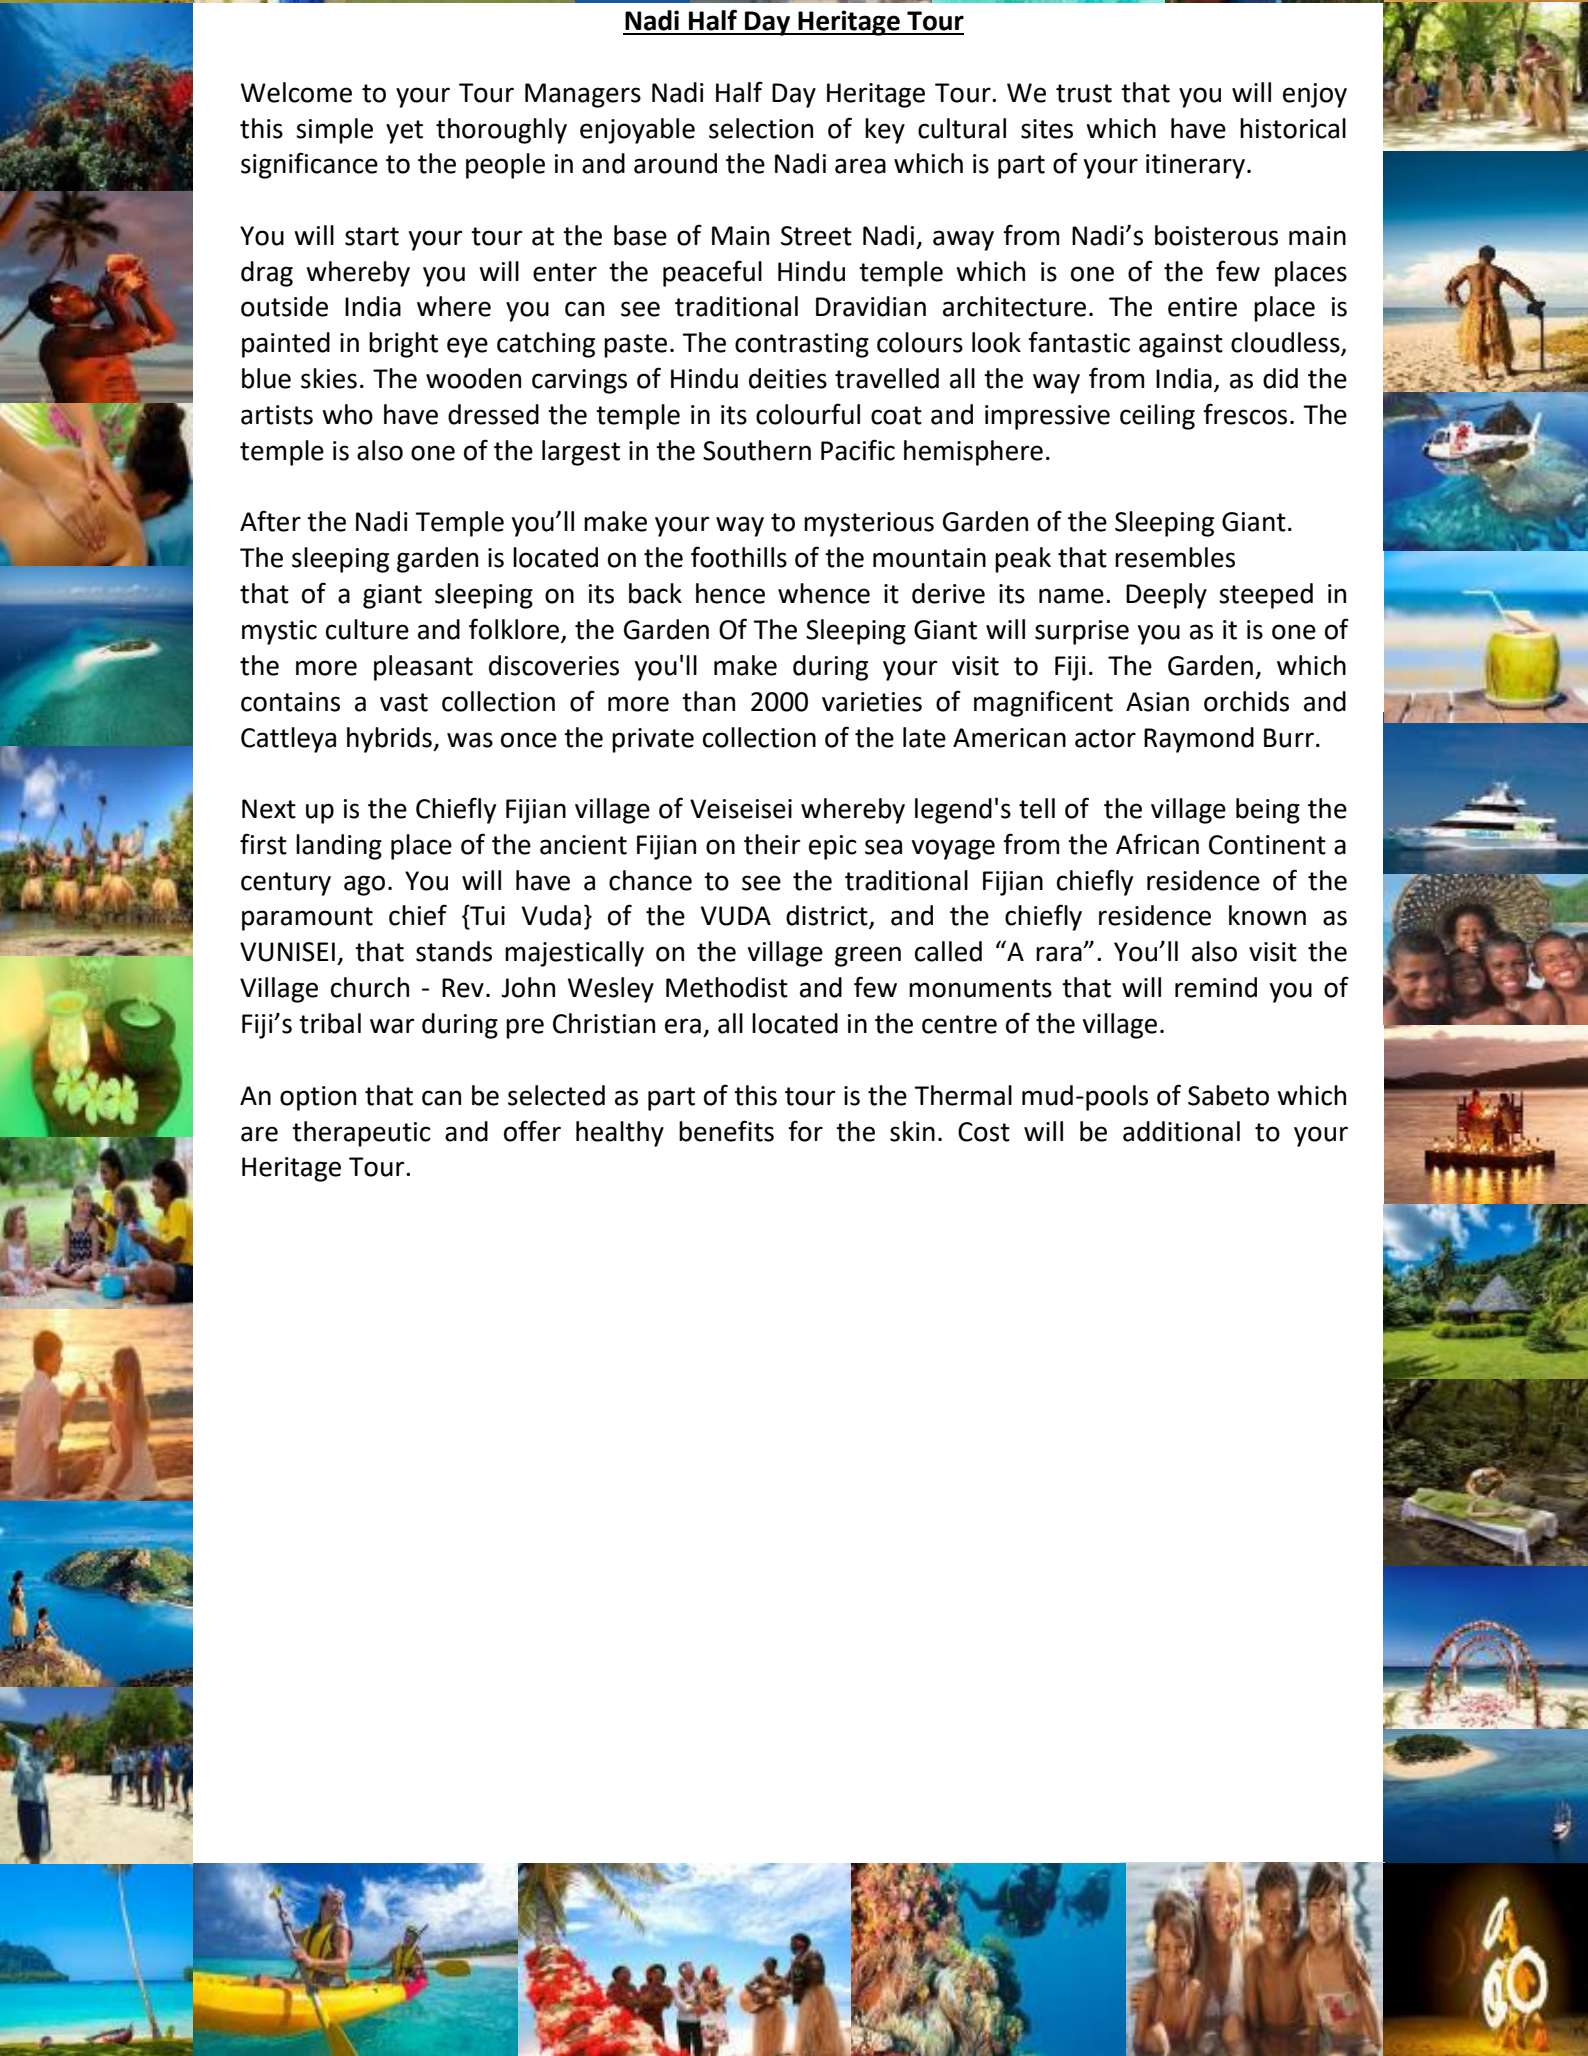

Welcome to your Tour Managers Nadi Half Day Heritage Tour. We trust that you will enjoy this simple yet thoroughly enjoyable selection of key cultural sites which have historical significance to the people in and around the Nadi area which is part of your itinerary.

You will start your tour at the base of Main Street Nadi, away from Nadi's boisterous main drag whereby you will enter the peaceful Hindu temple which is one of the few places outside India where you can see traditional Dravidian architecture. The entire place is painted in bright eye catching paste. The contrasting colours look fantastic against cloudless, blue skies. The wooden carvings of Hindu deities travelled all the way from India, as did the artists who have dressed the temple in its colourful coat and impressive ceiling frescos. The temple is also one of the largest in the Southern Pacific hemisphere.

After the Nadi Temple you'll make your way to mysterious Garden of the Sleeping Giant. The sleeping garden is located on the foothills of the mountain peak that resembles that of a giant sleeping on its back hence whence it derive its name. Deeply steeped in mystic culture and folklore, the Garden Of The Sleeping Giant will surprise you as it is one of the more pleasant discoveries you'll make during your visit to Fiji. The Garden, which contains a vast collection of more than 2000 varieties of magnificent Asian orchids and Cattleya hybrids, was once the private collection of the late American actor Raymond Burr.

Next up is the Chiefly Fijian village of Veiseisei whereby legend's tell of the village being the first landing place of the ancient Fijian on their epic sea voyage from the African Continent a century ago. You will have a chance to see the traditional Fijian chiefly residence of the paramount chief {Tui Vuda} of the VUDA district, and the chiefly residence known as VUNISEI, that stands majestically on the village green called "A rara". You'll also visit the Village church - Rev. John Wesley Methodist and few monuments that will remind you of Fiji's tribal war during pre Christian era, all located in the centre of the village.

An option that can be selected as part of this tour is the Thermal mud-pools of Sabeto which are therapeutic and offer healthy benefits for the skin. Cost will be additional to your Heritage Tour.
